GEOPHYSICS DEPARTMENT

The Qualifying Oral Examination consists of a presentation of the proposed research by the student. Your committee must comprise at least three Stanford Academic Counsel members. Outside scientists and other members of the Stanford faculty and academic staff may participate as well, however more than half of the full committee must be Stanford Geophysics faculty. After your presentation, give this form to your advisor to sign. When the form is complete, return it to Rachael Madison, Student Services Manager.

STUDENT INFORMATION

Student Name ________________________________
Student ID ________________________________
Exam Date ________________________________

PROPOSAL TITLE

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Geophysics Advisor __________________________ Signed __________________________ Date ______
Geophysics Faculty __________________________ Signed __________________________ Date ______
Geophysics Faculty __________________________ Signed __________________________ Date ______
Member __________________________ Signed __________________________ Date ______

REPORT OF RESULTS:

The candidate ☐ Passed ☐ Did not pass

Advisor __________________________ Signed __________________________ Date ______
Section I – Advisors/Committee Members

Advisor and committee members should use the space below for comments:

a. Summarize topics reviewed and student’s progress:

b. List recommendations:

c. List concerns: